

Apprenticeship Vacancy

Employer:

N18

Type of Apprenticeship: Workshop Mechanic ENGINEERING

As a Warehousing and Storage apprentice, you might learn skills in operating specialist machinery. Your duties will include how to manage stock; audit inventory; keep equipment in good working order; process returned goods; or manage the receipt, storage and dispatch of goods. You will even learn how to maintain the safety of hazardous goods and materials. You will be expected to attend a local training provider and complete a Level 2 Warehouse operative Intermediate Apprenticeship within a year.

To complete this apprenticeship you must be capable of completing Maths & English at GCSE Level C.

Tasks

This is a great opportunity to join leading Tool Hire Company as an apprentice. Duties will include customer service, sales and dealing with customers, you will be mainly in the workshop, working with a wide variety of tools & equipment, carrying out small repairs, testing equipment. Accompanying delivery driver to various sites for delivery and collection. Will be observing and assisting in loading equipment onto truck (could be construction, DIY or business sites). Helping with general appearance of shop floor. Using hire desk computer, attending staff meetings.

Requirements

The applicant should have a mechanical aptitude. Student must be safety conscious & responsible. Able to obey all safety instructions. Physically fit. Good communication skills & not afraid to ask questions. Able to work in a small team. Should always be safety conscious and ask if unsure of anything, the applicant must be aware that to complete this apprenticeship they will be required by the employer to attend overnight training courses to achieve an NVQ Level 2 Qualification Hire Desk Operative.

To complete this apprenticeship you must be capable of completing Maths & English at GCSE Level C.

Clothing

Casual
Smart Casual, Jeans OK
Safety Boots

Hours of Work

Monday - Friday 8.30 am - 5 pm

Wages

£2.60 per hour, 37.5 Hours Per Week

Enfield Work Experience is a service provided by Enfield Education Business Partnership in association with Enfield Council

